

The Vasant Rao Trophy

This award is presented to an organisation which is adjudged as the next best based on the criteria for the Handa Golden Key.

The Mohta Trophy

The Mohta trophy, for the best value engineering effort, will be awarded to the leader of that Value Engineering Team, which, in the assessment of the judges, has submitted the best value engineering project report of a project or initiative implemented during the preceding year prior to the Conference date. The winning team will make a presentation during the conference.

The entry can be submitted by the Team Leader, certified by a business head or a very senior manager of the organisation (preferably by a Director, President, Vice President or General Manager)
